Technology Classes

Got a new device for Christmas? Or have an old one you want to know more about?

Sign-up for one-on-one sessions with a tech expert. Stop at the front desk or call us to sign-up. One of our experts will contact you to set up an appointment.

RECYCLE AT YOUR LIBRARY

PRINTER INK CARTRIDGES
EYEGASSES

Did you know we have a visually enhanced public internet computer for patrons that need a little help seeing? It has a large print keyboard and screen to help you when you use the computer.

We also have a magnifier machine for reading newspapers, magazines, or books. This machine is located in one of our study rooms for your quiet reading pleasure.

There is no fee to use either of these in-house machines. Stop at the circulation desk and ask one of our staff to guide you to their location.

Calling all collectors!

Share your passion for a month at the Library!

Sign-up with Sandy for the Children's display case. Contact Lori O'Mara for the adult display case.

Wall displays at the library

Come into the library and view the quilt display on the south wall of the entrance. Work is presented each month by members of the Geneseo Park District Community Quilters Guild.

Also enjoy the varied work of local artists representing RutabegAs and the Geneseo Art League on the north wall of the entrance.

We are very appreciative of the local talent that shares its art with the public here at the Geneseo Public Library District.
